SCUFF'N HEELS

Music: My Brother Kevin
Natalie MacMaster (Cape Breton Girl CD – also available on iTunes)

This is a 64 count two-wall line dance with that “Dipstick” feel to it. There’s no intro so rather than try and guess, wait until you hear the piano trill (which is at 13 sec in) and then count 32 more beats and then start the dance (at 26 sec). As with Dipstick, there are lots of “heel drops,” which of course means you have to “lift” first, but for ease of writing this up...I’m just referring to the “drop” on each count. The dance may feel a bit slow initially but....wait for it...there’s a surprise!

Touch R heel forward (5), drop L heel (6), touch R heel side (7), drop L heel (8)

- 1 2 3 4 Turning Apple Jacks making ½ turn
5 6 7 8 Split toes apart so heels are together and toes are pointing out (1), twist R heel and L toe to right...toes will now be together (2), twist R toes and L heel to right...heels are now together again (3), repeat counts 2 and 3 twice (4,5,6,7), hold (8)...as you’re doing this, rotate your body right to make a ½ turn to start the dance again. If you find it easier to turn left, just reverse the R & L above to go the other way.

The increase in tempo is gradual for the first 3 times you dance it...then it picks up significantly and continues from there...have fun!
