Start Again!

Restart will be during the 7th repetition...you will have turned to the front during the first 32 counts, so leave off the last 16 counts and start again (right after the L step, R touch).

Note: To start the dance in the right spot...listen for where you would normally start counting...that's where you start! You'll hear the drum roll, and then 3 music notes...you'll start counting and dancing on the 4th note...which will be count 1. Check my website for a video clip if you're totally confused! ☺
